BLAZE-ing Updates

Updates and Reminders:

- New Employees!
 - Next week we will be welcoming Mrs. Tyree Gaines to the St. Boniface family! She will primarily be working with in 1st and 2nd grade classrooms supporting students with reading. She will also be helping students who are struggling with the Third Grade Reading Proficiency test. Apart from that she will be available to support some middle school students who need individual tutoring.
 - Ms. Julie Murray will be serving as our new Director of Religious Education! She will begin on November 29th and help students and faculty with spiritual programming and development here in the St. Boniface school and parish.
- Next Semester we will be switching PE days so that all students have the opportunity to participate in Taekwondo. We will be placing order for dojo pants for the upper grade level students in the next couple weeks.
- Remember we are switching to all black, red, and white uniform next year. All uniform needs can be found at Schoolbelles School Uniform (513) 921-3417
 - www.Schoolbelles.com. Our Schoolbelles code is: S2496
 - SchoolBelles is offering free shipping and a discount because their store front is temporarily closed! This would be a great time to buy school uniform supplies for next year at a discounted rate. (see their flyer in the Thursday Folder)
